Client acceptance of addendum v2

Project: Café Aurora website
Client: Café Aurora, represented by Lucy Rivers

Subject: I confirm the second version of the store proposal

Lucy, client

I have reviewed addendum v2 for the Café Aurora website project and I accept its terms.

I agree to add a store with five products, a cart and PayPal checkout, for an extra USD 180. We will provide the photos, copy and prices for those five products. Automatic inventory, user accounts, coupons and variants are not included.

I accept November 23, 2026 as the new delivery date for the whole project. The original project keeps its five sections and its USD 600 price. The agreed total, including the extra, is USD 780.

I agree to pay the USD 180 for the extra through the PayPal link you send me. This reply confirms acceptance of version 2; the payment will be made and verified separately. Version 1 remains as a previous proposal replaced by these changes.
